Fall 2014

The Wisdom of Mary Magdalene
Meet Mary Magdalene as she has appeared throughout history in legends, stories, music and images.

with Kayleen Asbo, Ph.D.
Cultural Historian, Spiritual Director, Mythologist

Friday October 10 7-9 pm
Saturday October 11 10 am - 5 pm

Beware of those who say, “Here it is,” or “There it is,” for it is within you that the kingdom of God dwells.
- The Gospel of Mary

Mary Magdalene stands at the center of the Christian contemplative tradition, yet she transcends all religious boundaries. Her composite picture from scripture reveals a woman of courage able to witness profound suffering and yet remain open to new life, joy and hope. For many contemporary seekers, Mary Magdalene represents an archetypal figure who points the way to a deeply embodied spiritual pathway that affirms the goodness of creation and the wisdom that can be found within the depths of each human heart.

Explore the Mary Magdalene of history and her profound and lasting impact on the contemplative tradition.
Discover the Mary Magdalene of art, music and mythology through a slideshow of almost 400 masterworks from across the centuries. Celebrate Mary Magdalene as an archetypal figure of anthropos, a fully realized human being of great spiritual power who embodies integration and wholeness. Through contemplative practices we will connect with our own wisdom, the indwelling Feminine.

Facilitated by Kayleen Asbo, who holds advanced degrees in music, mythology and psychology, and weaves together myth, history and the arts in her interactive workshops that are hailed as “truly life changing.” She is on the faculty of San Francisco Conservatory of Music and is joining the Religion and Philosophy faculty at California Institute of Integral Studies. She is Creative Director and Resident Mythologist for Mythica Foundation for Education, Contemplation and the Arts, and has presented at Michael Conforti’s Assisi Institute of Depth Psychology Conference in Italy.

Early bird payment by September 20 $125/ After $150
Dear Friends, As we approach the holidays, make sure to save time for the things that really matter. Let moments at The Red Shoes be your holiday lights. Our retreat, The Wisdom of Mary Magdalene, will illuminate your soul. Our speaker joins us from CA, weaving together myth, music and art to share her visionary work on the Sacred Feminine and the truths Mary reveals to us. The muses are smiling… so many outstanding opportunities to enjoy writing and appreciating poetry. Ava Haymon, our state Poet Laureate, will be teaching a Women’s Week poetry class, two outstanding scholars from Southern University will be celebrating the works of Maya Angelou and in partnership with the Arts Council, we will host two poetry writing workshops. To highlight love as the core of our traditions, we welcome as a facilitator, an LSU student dedicated to feminist advocacy who will be leading a workshop, The Art of Self Love. As you read our brochure, choose the holiday gifts you would like to give yourself and pick out a few classes for friends and family and buy gift certificates, which are sure to please. We hope your holiday season is filled with the joy of loved ones, warm memories and moments of awe. It will only feel complete if you celebrate with us at our holiday luncheon on December 5. Please join us,

Wendy Herschman, Executive Director

Spectral Spaces: The Imaginative Reality of Poetry
Thursdays  Oct. 2, 16, 30; Nov. 6, 20, Dec. 4  10:30 am-12:30 pm
Do you enjoy writing poetry but want to gain a deeper understanding of what creates the emotive power of words? Explore the imaginative reality shared between poet and reader, a space where multiple meanings exist beyond the actual words on the page. By looking at the works of poets and other artists, we will focus on how color, sound and dreams influence this shared experience. Develop new techniques for using these elements to add meaning and depth to the written word through a variety of writing exercises.

Facilitated by Cynthia Toups, a teaching artist with the Arts Council, former Senior Poetry Editor for the literary journal Rose & Thorn and student of Ava Haymon, Louisiana State Poet Laureate.

Each $25/ Series of 6 $120

Men's Retreat: The Essence of Being a Mature Man
Saturday  October 4  9:30 am-5:30 pm
Who am I really? Why am I here? What's truly calling me? Do I (still) have the power within, physically, mentally, emotionally, spiritually, to answer the call? Men's work expert Stefan Hermann will lead us to awakening so the answers may arise. Discover how to live with passion and clarity of purpose so we are not saying no when we want to say yes, or yes when it would be wiser to say no. This experiential workshop offers insight into the true nature of what it means to be a man in modern times. Based on Stefan's book Future Design, he will guide us to a deeper understanding and more powerful expression of self.

Facilitated by Stefan Hermann, who has 16 years of experience as a master facilitator of men's work in Europe, South Africa and all over the US.

The Wisdom of Mary Magdalene
Friday          October 10    7-9 pm
Saturday        October 11    10-5 pm
Myth, music and art lead us to the power of Mary Magdalene, an archetypal figure who points the way to a deeply embodied spiritual path that affirms the goodness of creation and the wisdom that can be found within the depths of each human heart.

Make Your Own Magic: The Art of Self-Love
Sunday          October 12    2-5 pm
I love myself, therefore I live totally in the now, experiencing each moment as good and knowing my future is bright, and joyful and secure...
Louise Hay, author of You Can Heal Your Life

Facilitated by Courtney Brandabur, a feminist advocate and activist, a senior at LSU studying psychology and creator of a community organization, Girl Warrior. $10

Maya Angelou: A Celebration
Wednesdays       October 15, 22       6:30-8 pm
A bird doesn't sing because it has an answer; it sings because it has a song.

Maya Angelou

On May 28 of this year, we lost a woman who helped us believe we each have a song to sing. Maya Angelou lived life as a teacher, activist, artist and human being. She was a warrior for equality, tolerance and peace. Her words inspire us, her passion ignites us, her heartbreaks urge us out of complacency and her expectations help us soar. Join us to celebrate her life and her words, to unwrap her poetry and essays, the gifts she gave to us in her life. Learn more about the spirit and the heart of this powerful and creative soul.

Facilitated by Cynthia Bryant, Associate Professor of English, Southern University and Lisa Delpit, Felton G. Clark Distinguished Professor of Education at Southern. $10

Chanting, Breathing and Freedom: Release Your Breath and Discover Your Voice
Saturday        October 18     10 am-4 pm
Singing—in the shower, with a karaoke machine or in a group—affects us more profoundly than we realize. Simple vocalizing with an awareness of the breath has been proven to benefit our psychological and physical health. Experience a combination of pranayama breathing exercises, simple yoga asanas and group Sanskrit chanting to open, strengthen and balance the chakras, while dissolving old fears and energetic blockages. When you move beyond those fears, understand the flow of your breath and give yourself permission to sing, you can use your authentic voice for healing.

Facilitated by Martha Howe, a professional musician who has been meditating and chanting for 33 years; and Tara Potter, a long-time meditator, energy-worker, chiropractor, and a certified IYS pranic healer. $60

Sacred Circles

Sunday Sacred Circle: Matters of the Heart
Sundays               Weekly               5-6 pm
Nourish your spirit: a time of introspection, an inter-religious, ecumenical experience for those yearning to unite through prayer, chanting, inspirational readings and silence with the spirit of Sophia.

Facilitated by Dr. Francis Vanderwall, Professor Emeritus, Our Lady of the Lake College and Jesuit Retreat Director.

Donations Appreciated

A Course in Miracles
Monday               Weekly               7-8:30 pm
Welcome the wisdom of A Course in Miracles. We will meet weekly throughout the year to build a circle of support for this profound and life-changing inner work that focuses on healing relationships and making them holy. Begin the process of changing your mind and perception with the aim of removing blocks to the awareness of love’s presence.

Facilitated by Anita Faye Leclercq, who has been studying A Course in Miracles since the 1980s.

Suggested monthly donation $20

Gather the Women - Connections and Reflections
Formerly Continuing Community
Tuesdays               Weekly               4:30-6 pm
A circle of women is a multifaceted mirror in which each sees herself reflected…. The circle is a sacred ritual…capable of changing ourselves and the world.
-Jean Shinoda Bolen

Our Gather the Women circle creates an opportunity to connect in authentic conversation, to share stories, to inspire and be inspired. Each week we focus on a different spiritual concept. In circle, we find our voices and claim our power, leading to personal and planetary transformation. Our Gather the Women (GTW) circle is part of a global network of women who are activating the incredible power of women’s wisdom, valuing and honoring all expressions of spirituality.

Donations appreciated

Compassion in Action Circle
Wednesdays               Sept. 3-Dec. 10              10:30 am-12 pm
Films and books will spark the spirit of compassion during the fall months. Inspiring stories about women, youth, education, courage and love, as well as stories that highlight the shadow side of our culture will reveal new opportunities for compassionate action.

Facilitated by Gerry Stark and members of the Compassion in Action Circle.

Suggested monthly donation $20

Meditation and Spiritual Awakening
Wednesdays               Weekly               5-6 pm
Join us for a quiet time of exploration and meditation. Guided meditation leads into a period of silence, a time to quiet the mind and release stress. We listen to the wisdom of inspiring spiritual teachers and then return to silence, a time to empty and reconnect to Source. Some instruction offered as we develop and deepen our practice. All levels of experience welcome.

Facilitated by Wendy Herschman, who enjoys sharing the joy of group meditation.

Suggested donation $5

The Key - Men's Spiritual Group
Thursdays               Weekly               6-7 pm
Are you ready to open the door to the second half of life? The key we seek is the one that opens the door to a life of meaning. Join our group and enter a supportive place for men to meet that encourages authentic conversation about coming to a deeper understanding of the healthy masculine and the yearning for spirituality.

Facilitated by Tom Lastrapes, who envisions a life lived fully in relationship with the Divine.

Suggested monthly donation $20

Spiritual Journey Circle
Thursdays               Weekly               6-7 pm
Find inspiration on this journey that opens the heart to the ideas of diverse spiritual teachers. We begin the fall season exploring Matthew Fox’s new book, Meister Eckhart: A Mystic Warrior for Our Times. Share in discussions taking you to a spirituality that will enrich your life on a deeper personal level. Return each week for spiritual connection and community.

Facilitated by Wendy Herschman, Executive Director of The Red Shoes, & members of Spiritual Journey Circle.

Suggested monthly donation $20

The Red Shoes is a 501c3 non-profit.
-We depend on our friends for support throughout the year. Our program fees do not cover our expenses.
-Your donations make it possible for us to continue reaching more and more women in the Baton Rouge community.
-Your word-of-mouth advertising brings wonderful people into our programs.
-We appreciate your confidence in our work.
